

May-June

Staying Home for Good

It's treacherous to live in Honduras, migrating can be deadly, so care is vital for all who remain in this Central American country.

MIGUEL DULICK
.....10

Lessons from Prison

A man behind bars finds admitting sins can forge positive paths.

ANONYMOUS
.....16

Estrangements in Families

Part two: There's no one path to reconciliation, but five steps can help.

.....20

The Sailor Saint

On a sea pilgrimage for Christ, St. Brendan and a crew of fellow Irish monks may have beaten others to North America by centuries.

DAWN ALLRED KRAEMER, PHD
.....26

DEAR PADRE

"Why is there a Mass honoring Mary the day after Pentecost?"

FR. BYRON MILLER, CSSR
.....31

MEDITATION

Why Bother to Pray?

There really is a return on time invested in prayer.

JOE BAUMGARTEN
.....32

Understanding the Annulment Process

A post-divorce opportunity for healing and grace for Catholics

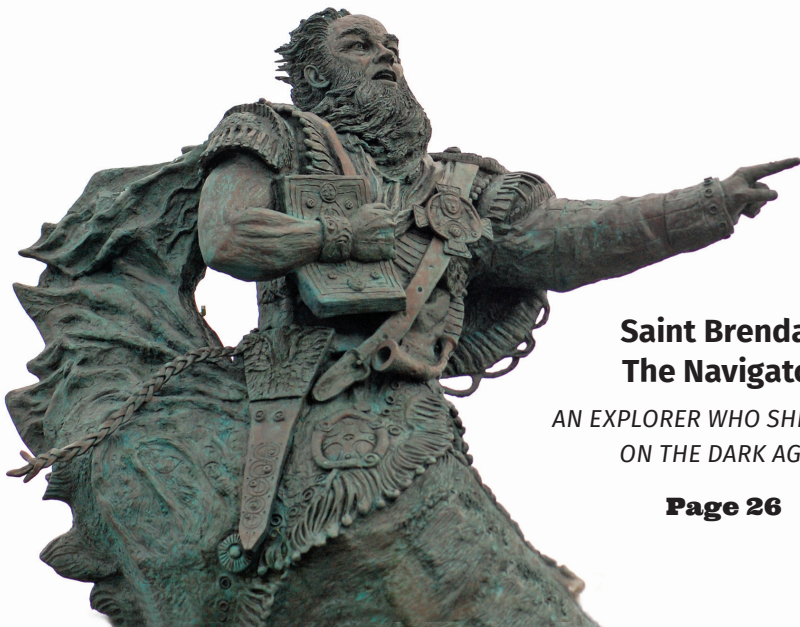

PAIGE BYRNE SHORTAL
.....36

FICTION

When Irish Eyes Are Dimming

Alzheimer's invaded Lucy. And then, God gave her a moment.

CHARLENE HOYT
.....38

Saint Brendan The Navigator

AN EXPLORER WHO SHED LIGHT
ON THE DARK AGES

Page 26

ON THE COVER
Photo: JKom / Shutterstock
Design: Wendy Barnes

Columns

From the President and Publisher 6

Tongues Untied
When our prayers feel out of sync, the Holy Spirit steps in.

FR. BYRON MILLER, CSSR

Plain Talk 8

"Yes" to Protest
Synodality, protest seek the same end by different means

MOST REVEREND
BRUCE LEWANDOWSKI, CSSR

Faith Hits Home 14

"Thanks," No Matter What
Even in tough times, thanking God can ease pain.

SARAH CHRISTMYER

Holy Homework 24

A Return to "Rockwell"
Catholics can bring the love of Christ back to family life.

FR. BOB PAGLIARI, CSSR, PHD

The Redeemer,
Mary, and You 30

Our Mother Is "All Eyes"
Christianity is, in part, about loss. Mary knows about loss.

FR. PHILIP DABNEY, CSSR

Just Live It 34

If Only for a Moment
When a friend's memory fades, we can help.

MARÍA RUIZ SCAPERLANDA